

No, Susanne doesn't have a screw loose... she's testing her lawn.

You don't have to be a Ms. Gadget to fix problems with your lawn. But, you can use a screwdriver to make sure you're getting water down into your lawn's root zone. If you can't easily push it in to its handle, the soil is probably compacted and you should look into aeration.

Get more "tools" for a healthy lawn by calling 240.777.7700. Or visit:

 askDEP.com